

RORY BANFALVI

647-704-2499 | rory.banfalvi@mail.utoronto.ca

EDUCATION

---

Henry N.R. Jackman Faculty of Law, University of Toronto, Toronto ON Sept. 2025 – present
Candidate for Juris Doctor, 2028

University of Toronto (St. George Campus), Toronto ON Sept. 2021 – Jun. 2025
Honours Bachelor of Arts in Gender Studies and Ethics, Society & Law
Selected Awards:

- Best Degree in Arts, awarded to graduating University College student with highest CGPA (Apr. 2025)
- New College Student Leadership Award in Women and Gender Studies (Apr. 2025)
- Criminal Justice Association of Ontario Award, recognizing community involvement and exceptional academic performance in the field of criminal justice (Dec. 2024)
- Howard Ferguson Scholarship, recurring award for academic excellence (Oct. 2022 – Apr. 2025)

Theses:

- No Time Like the Present: Why Ontario Courts are Ready for a Tanudjaja et al. 2.0. (2025)
- Tell Us About a Time You Overcame Adversity: The Neoliberalization of U.S. College Admissions in the Post-Affirmative Action World (2024)

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

University of Toronto Women & Gender Studies Institute, Toronto ON Sept. 2023–May 2025
Founding Editor-in-Chief, Generations: Women & Gender Studies Undergraduate Journal

- Critically reviewed submitted manuscripts for cogency, relevance, and accuracy of research
- Delegated tasks to editorial team of seven copy editors and two managing editors

University of Toronto Faculty of Arts & Science, Toronto ON Oct. 2022 – Jun. 2023
Alumni Relations and Advancement Assistant

- Leveraged administrative software to track alumni engagement with UofT campaigns and events
- Researched international venues for alumni appreciation and donor stewardship events

Osgoode Hall Law Professional Development, Toronto ON May 2022 – Aug. 2022
Intensive Trial Advocacy Workshop (ITAW) Program Coordinator

- Coordinated 6-day, dual delivery, intensive trial skills program for lawyers with 2-5 years of experience
- Updated instructional materials, topics included: examinations, expert witnesses, and impeachments

Professor Lorne Tepperman, Toronto ON Sept. 2021 – Dec. 2021
Editorial Assistant

- Invited by Professor Tepperman to edit sociology textbook “Real Life Sociology”
- Critically reviewed 8 chapters for content, contemporary relevance, and presentation of information

VOLUNTEER AND EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

---

David Asper Centre for Constitutional Rights, Toronto ON Sept. 2025 – present
Working Group Member: Charter Issues in AI and Predictive Policing

- Conduct literature review regarding data-scraping and potential Charter breaches
- Research and draft memo outlining the evolution of s.8 search and seizure frameworks since 2020

Law in Action Within Schools (LAWS), Toronto ON Sept. 2025 – present
Materials Developer

- Author instructional trial advocacy guides for students and volunteers at participating LAWS schools
- Design fact patterns and create evidence for in-class mock trial programming

Trial & Error Mock Trial Bootcamp, Toronto ON

Aug. 2022 – present

Co-Founder & Executive Director

- Designed 5-week asynchronous mock trial summer program for high school and undergraduate students
- Authored 150+ pages of instructional materials for trial and appellate advocacy

ORAL ADVOCACY

---

Drexel Kline and UCLA Law's Trial by Combat Mock Trial Competition, Philadelphia, PA

Jun. 2025

Trial-By-Combat Champion

- Earned 1st place at 2025 One-on-One Collegiate Mock Trial National Championship, earning title of best undergraduate mock trial competitor in the U.S. and Canada
- Prepared municipal negligence case in less than 24 hours, arguing for both plaintiff and defendant

University of Toronto American Mock Trial Program, Toronto ON

May 2022 – Jun. 2025

Program Director and Team Captain

- Coached two teams through advanced US federal evidence procedure and trial advocacy skills
- Led A-team from unranked in 2022 to ranked 32 out of 750+ teams in 2025

University of Toronto Mock Trial, Toronto ON

Sept. 2021 – Apr. 2025

Mock Trial Competitor

- 2025 All-American Defense Attorney, awarded to top 0.005% of competitors across the U.S. and Canada
- Competed in 24 tournaments, earning 18 team recognitions and 12 individual best-attorney awards
- Presented opening and closing statements and performed cross and direct examinations before a judge in complex civil and criminal trial simulations
- Topics included: pharmaceutical kick-backs, the slayer rule, conspiracy, and employer negligence

Lion's Cup National Undergraduate Mooting Competition, Toronto ON

Jun. 2023 – Jun. 2024

Mooter

- Presented oral arguments before judges as appellant and respondent in two criminal-constitutional moots
- Placed 6th in 2024, mooting R. v. Bykovets, and placed 2nd in 2023, mooting R. v. Beaver
- Awarded 3rd overall oralist prize in 2023

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

---

"The Professor's Tools Will Never Dismantle the Professor's House," Rory Banfalvi, (2024) 1.1.1: Generations: The Woman & Gender Studies Undergraduate Journal at 12.

"Violence as Morally Justified to Achieve Queer Liberation: Eudaimonia and Burdened Virtue Theory," Rory Banfalvi, (2024) Mindful: Journal of Ethics at 6.

"Putting the Partial in Impartiality: The Necessity of Embodied Adjudication," Rory Banfalvi, (2023) 1.8.1: University of Toronto Undergraduate Law Journal at 11.

"When Marvel's Project Insight Becomes a Reality: Positivism Versus Critical Race Theory on AI Driven Predictive Policing Algorithms," Rory Banfalvi, (2022) 1.7.1: University of Toronto Undergraduate Law Journal at 24.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

---

Conversational French, learning Dutch and Hungarian. Avid Texas hold'em player and pilates-goer. Interests include formula 1 racing, baking "everything but the kitchen sink" cookies, and musical theatre.